FIFTEEN CENTS

RED TAGGED RENTAL UNIT — Apartment building at intersection of Trevor Rd. and North Ave. has been red tagged by Lake County Building and Zoning Dept. for life endangering building violations. Red tag unsafe rental property

by GLORIA DAVIS

Are there rental properties in the Antioch area that have life safety violations where rents, too high for the property's condition, are being charged to people that can't afford to move elsewhere?

The News has received reports from present and former tenants of rental units owned by the Antioch Commercial Co., in which such conditions exist locally.

The Lake County Building and Zoning Dept. deemed that at least one of this company's apartment buildings is indeed not the safest place in the world to live by red tagging it on Oct. 13.

Tom Tom rates tops of 200 school papers

At the last regular meeting of the Board of Education of Antioch Community High School, Principal Art Blecke informed the board that the school newspaper, "The Tom Tom," had received a first place award from the Kettle Moraine Press Assn. This association is made-up of 200 school newspapers.

Blecke added that the "Tom Tom" had also gotten a top rating from the National Scholastic Press Assn.

Denise Mattson was the editor-in-chief for the 1982-83 award years and Michael Gordy served as the paper's sponsor.

Curriculum Director Gary Allen informed the board that three Antioch High School students were participating in the student foreign exchange program sponsored by Antioch's Rotary Club.

Angie Harreld, a junior, is going to school in Brazil; Chris Waters, a junior, is in Finland and Sue Samson, also a junior, is staying in Norway.

Two other Antioch students are to be commended according to another report made to the board. Ranking with only five percent of the nation's students is James Werhane, who received a letter of commendation because of the high score he made in the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests (PSAT).

More accolades were given Craig James whose PSAT Test score was equaled or bettered by only two percent of the high school students in the nation who took the test.

Speakers at the meeting included seniors, Kim Gardner, Karolyn Richter and Blythe Holmes who reported on the camp they attended last summer that was sponsored by the Illinois Teenage Institute on Substance Abuse. The girls were sent to the camp by the Antioch Women's Club and Antioch Township.

The girls are using what they learned at the camp in peer group counseling sessions at the high school.

The board also heard that among the many homecoming activities set for the week of Oct. 23-29, an alumni-parent reception is scheduled to be held in the commons area in conjunction with the homecoming show on Friday, Oct. 28.

In final action, the board approved the rescheduling of the November board meeting from Thursday, Nov. 17, to Tuesday, Nov. 15, in order to meet the requirement that the board take session within a seven day period after a school board election is held.

The election will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 8, and that meeting, scheduled for Nov. 15, will serve not only as a regular meeting, but as a reorganizational meeting after the elections results have been tallied.

Can teens work where liquor sold?

The Antioch Village Board will continue the discussion on amending the village ordinance concerning people under 21 years of age working in businesses that trade in alcoholic beverages at the next board meeting on Monday, Nov. 7.

According to Donna Henderson of Village Attorney Ken Clark's office, the state statute concerning the matter states that anyone who is under the age of 21 years, and in possession of alcoholic beverages in a public place, street or highway, unless they are making delivery in their employment or by orders of a parent, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The state statute does not stipulate any particular age in stating that a "minor" may not entertain, hostess or handle liquor in a place where the sale of liquor is the primary business.

The state allows local municipalities to stipulate how old a person has to be to work in a place where liquor is not the mainstay of the business such as a grocery store that sells liquor or a restaurant that has a bar.

The question before the board is whether or not the local ordinance on the matter should consider a minor one under 21 or under the age of majority of 18.

Village Trustee Don Amundsen is of the opinion that those under 21 can't legally drink in Illinois and they also should not be able to handle liquor in their employment.

The other trustees, along with Mayor Ray Toft, seem to be worried that such stipulations in an ordinance might cost stock boys, who stock liquor on grocery shelves, and waitresses, who work in restaurants with bars, their jobs.

'Footlights' to shine for two Nov. weekends

Drew to seek full judgeship

Saying he was encouraged by the support he has received from friends and the legal and civic community, Associate Judge Bernard E. Drew Jr. has announced his candidacy for the full judgeship he believes will open up when Judge John Kaufman retires in November, 1984.

Judge Drew, a Republican, first must seek his party's nomination in the March primary election.

Judge Drew is married and has two children and lives in Libertyville. A life long resident of Lake County, he was appointed associate judge in 1975 after serving as city prosecutor for Waukegan, Gurnee and Park City in addition to private practice and part time work in the public defender's office.

Drew has also served as a precinct committeeman in Waukegan Township, vice president of the Waukegan Young Republicans, vice president of the Lake County Young Republicans and was appointed and then elected, as a Republican, to the office of Waukegan Township Clerk.

He has served on the Lake County DWI Task Force, Lake County Halfway House Committee, Lake-McHenry Lawn Enforcement Committee, Indian Guides-Indian Princesses, Libertyville Little League coach and manager, YBA Boys Basketball Coach, girls basketball coach at Butterfield School and was coach and manager at Libertyville Boys Club.

He received his bachelor of science degree from Miami of Ohio University and his law degree from Marquette University in 1968.

"I have been encouraged by the wholehearted response I received from many of my friends and with their support I have decided to enter the race," Drew said.

News/OPINION

When I think about it

Senate sends Gloria into moneyless orbit

by GLORIA DAVIS

I simply can't stand it as I look at the vast empty wasteland that is my bank account, week after dreary week!

Now I have come to grips with the fact that Uncle Sam has me working from January through June to pay his "must" tax bill. These grips, mind you, are as painful as "la grippe."

Now that I am forced to put my clothes on layaway at the "Fourth Time Around Shop", I could get mad at the latest shenanigans of our "thrifless" nation's lawmakers if I really wanted to dwell on some of the latest news reports from Washington.

On second thought, let's dwell! Now this may be sour apples because I am not a federal employee, but with the national economy in worse shape than Minnesota Fats seen in leotards at the local health spa, creating a new national holiday at this time is ridiculous!

I heard that this day will cost over $300 million in salaries just for federal employees in Chicago to have the day off. Imagine what the national cost will be, never mind the salaries of the school teachers and other municipal employees that might be added to that list!

How wonderful a person is, is a moot point. It's the timing and the cost that is the main issue.

And there is an ever so slight suspicion that Martin Luther King's Birthday, now a national holiday, reached the senate floor in these lean times only because our erstwhile legislators were making a bid for a certain minority group's vote in this pre-election year.

Oh but our politicians wouldn't do that, would they? Is Dolly Parton a girl?

Then we have the expose of the new senate office building or should I say palace, set to house the offices of 50 senators at a cost of almost $2 million per senator. What really bothers me about this is that I know they probably could have represented me almost as well in offices that only cost $1 million apiece.

The biggest mystery is how this project skipped by the voter unnoticed when lesser expenditures like new dishes for the White House hit the headlines.

If this keeps up, maybe they'll at least let me take the politicians that represent me off my income tax as dependents!

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

I see where former Antioch High School athlete, Kurt Kapischke, has been averaging 369 yards and 35 points a game while playing starting tackle position for the Augustana College Vikings, currently ranked number one in the nation in the NCAA Division III.

Kurt has been starting at Augustana for all four of his college years. That-a-Sequoit way, Kurt!

Other ex-Sequoits, still starring on the football field in college are John Andre, Ed Gron and Steve Jennrich, all playing for the Elmhurst College Bluejays.

And don't forget to patronize the holiday bazaars being held by all the local organizations. It's a great way to do your Christmas shopping early and find lovely handmade gift items while supporting worthy causes.

Let Annie Mae urge all parents, teens, in fact everyone to make a date to see "Because They Do The Chemical People," the tv film on drug and alcohol abuse at school-age level, that will be shown at ACHS at 7:30 p.m., on Nov. 2 and 9.

A Jewel Shop and Share for W.C. Petty School will be held on Nov. 7, 8 and 9. The money will go for educational items.

So get your shopping list ready! The Shop and Share cards will be sent to you next week. Parents of Petty students should keep asking their children about them if they don't receive them.

Maybe the road construction on Rtes. 173 and 59 have been a little bothersome but you have to admit the great results have been worth the inconvenience! Still wish something could be done to make the Jewel-Osco parking lot access off of Rte. 173 a little safer.

I know the village fathers are conscious of the problem and have been trying to correct it.

Plan coin show at high school

The Antioch Coin Club will host its ninth annual Coin show, Sunday, Nov. 6, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., at the Antioch Community High School on Rte. 83 near Rte. 173.

There will be free parking and free admission. The Coin Club meets at the Antioch State Bank every third Monday of the month at 8 p.m.

Guests are welcome and membership is open to all numismatists in the area.

Old Annie Mae is planning on tripping the light fantastic with a minuet or two with the Heritage Dancers at the Lakes Region Historical Society's shindig on Oct. 30.

P. S. Isn't it nice to see all those empty retail spaces in town filling up! Mayor Toft tells me that the retail sales tax that the village receives has really gone-up since spring!

Parks to hold road rules class

Antioch Parks and Recreation is announcing the New Rules of the Road Class, held in cooperation with Jim Edgar and the Secretary of State office.

The Rules of the Road class will be held at the Senior Center at 835 Holbek, from 10 a.m. until noon, Nov. 14, 21, and 28.

The class is only at these times on Monday mornings, and one must attend each class. Anyone interested in joining can call Glenda at (312) 395-2160 Antioch Parks and Recreation, Monday thru Friday from 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Parks is also looking for a dance instructor for girls ages five through 13 years of age on Saturday mornings. The interest is in jazz and if anyone knows of someone that can teach such a class, please contact Glenda at (312) 395-2160 Monday through Friday.

Letter To The Editor

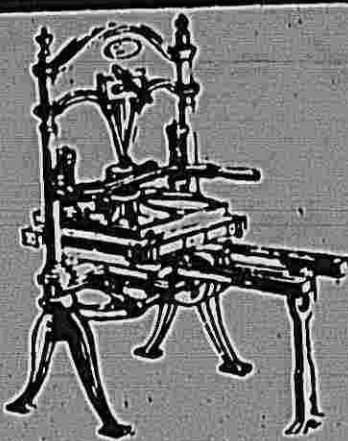

In the Oct. 3 issue of the Antioch News, you ran an article concerning a letter to the editor from Gwen Lulofs. In her letter she told how the Antioch Community High School (ACHS) soccer fields should have been named after the late Casey Lulofs and not Warren Polley, Dist. 117 superintendent.

Mrs. Lulofs is most correct. Casey Lulofs pushed soccer for years. He taught me how to play soccer in the local league. Now I play for the ACHS soccer team. When I think of soccer, Warren Polley is the last name to come to mind.

It is only common sense to honor somebody who has contributed to soccer. As Gwen Lulofs said in her letter, Polley resisted the advocacy of soccer at ACHS. Therefore, to name the fields after Polley is like naming a national park after James Watt.

If Polley has made great contributions in the academic field, honor him with a new academic program. It grieves me to see Casey Lulofs' work in youth soccer go unnoticed.

Grade school students to receive tutoring

Final approval for a new tutoring program, which will begin in November, has been given by the Antioch Grade School Board.

The program is aimed at children in grades one through five who are below average achievers, according to Supt. Dr. Donald Skidmore.

Each school in the district will be responsible for its own program and hiring the tutors. Skidmore said the initial reaction has been good, with so many applicants for the tutoring positions that there will be no need to advertise the jobs.

Students in the program will be selected through teacher recommendations and reading scores, and while they are being tutored they will continue to receive their regular reading instruction. Teachers will develop a parallel reading curriculum for the tutors to use with the students. Tutors will then give the teachers periodic progress reports.

Skidmore said the number of tutoring hours for each student will vary, but each school has been allocated 500 tutoring hours to implement the program this year.

In other action the board heard a report on Camp Timberlee from teachers who participated in the week-long outdoor education program last month.

Skidmore said 63 seventh, eighth and ninth graders attended the camp, located in Troy, Wis.

Teachers participating in the program received no financial compensation. Their donated time included planning activities and the four days spent with the students at the camp.

The board voted to continue the program in the 1984-85 school year.

The board tentatively approved the school calendar for the 1984-85 school year, with another review to be held within several months. The calendar includes a spring vacation from April 1 to 4 and school to be dismissed no later than June 7, 1985.

terested in contests, games, and having fun taking off pounds sensibly is welcome. Call Elsie Reitz for further information at (312) 395-5195 or drop in to a meeting.

During the month of October several members will be attending fall rally at the Sheraton on Green Bay. The theme will be "The Greatest Show on Earth".

There will also be a walk-a-thon to help clubs earn money. The members going will ask people to sponsor them in their walk around Belvidere Recreation Center.

Red tagged building

According to the building and zoning department's deputy director, Kenneth Bain, an inspection team posted the apartment building, located at the intersection of North Ave. and Trevor Rd., to make the tenants presently living there aware that there are "numerous" heating, plumbing, electrical etc. life safety violations on the property.

Bain said that the inspection team had been sent to that particular apartment building because of "tenants complaints."

On Friday, Oct. 21, he added that he was in the process of sending a list of these violations to the Antioch Commercial Co., in Chicago, where the tax bills are sent.

"We expect to get a response in approximately 10 days and then the owners and this department will negotiate a reasonable time frame in which these violations should be corrected," Bain said.

As a guest, he said that the list before him should take somewhere between 30 to 60 days to correct.

If the repair work isn't done inside of the time frame agreed upon, "The file then goes to the state's attorney's office for prosecution," added Bain.

Michael Erde, of the law firm of Erde and Chaconas, Chicago, represents several rental properties owned by the Antioch Commercial Co.

According to Erde, he was aware of only two violations on the North Ave.—Trevor Rd. property, a faulty oil furnace and a second floor porch.

Erde claims the porch has been repaired and he has been trying to get a local heating contractor to fix the furnace.

"That property has been losing money for five years and many of the people there are behind on their rent. I have met with them and discussed ways to help them catch up on their rent by doing some of the maintenance. I don't want anyone to have to leave," Erde said.

But the stories of former and present tenants say that "some outward cosmetic painting, etc. has been done but conditions at the building are 'deplorable'."

One ex-tenant, who asked that her name be deleted because she alleges that the present manager has threatened anyone who "makes trouble," says that the porch is still wobbly and dangerous.

"When I moved in there in May, there was an atmosphere of fear there created by the manager. People were afraid to talk to one another," she said.

"Most of the tenants are on public aid. That's how they (landlords) prefer it because, no matter how bad the conditions, they can't afford to move," she said.

When this tenant moved in, in the spring, rents were being paid weekly, with no lease, and included the utilities.

After complaints were made and the tenants refused to pay their rent in August until repair work was done, they received a lease making the rent payable monthly.

Reports of one family not having heat all last winter were refuted by Erde and the manager, who has also asked to have her name deleted for personal reasons.

Although Erde says he is still trying to have that particular furnace fixed, the manager claims that it has been fixed.

Erde explains the sudden lease by saying, "They asked for rules and regulations and that is what a lease is."

One tenant's rent, which was $280, went up almost $100 a month because of the sudden addition of the utility charge.

"They will actually be paying less then they were when they were paying weekly because of the many months when there are five weeks," said Erde, adding that the utility charge was fairer.

There are five months in 1983 that have five Saturdays.

Complaints that the lease contained a rider that the lawyer for the tenants said, "May be legal but is immoral and unethical," were refuted by both Erde and the manager who claimed it was just a form rider.

The tenants complain it doesn't allow them to bring their groceries in the front door and the back entrance is dangerous, and it states that any complaints about conditions will be considered harassment.

Other tenant complaints include dark dangerous hallways with no light bulbs, water contamination because of an improperly fitting septic tank lid and no storm windows.

A former maintenance man, Rick Henderson, who lives in another of Antioch Commercial's properties on Rte. 83, said his place was okay but the building on North and Trevor "should have been condemned a long time ago."

He said that he was told not to fix the faulty furnace because the cost was too much. Erde and the manager deny this.

Henderson said that, "$100 a month was too high a rent for those apartments."

Other tenants agreed they were being harassed by the manager with some complaining they have seen her "packing a gun."

Erde said that he is getting storm windows for the building.

Sequoits clinch title, playoffs

Antioch's Sequoits captured at least a tie for the North Suburban Conference title and assured themselves of a berth in the state playoffs with a 7-0 victory over Warren in a driving downpour.

The Sequoits will now face Zion-Benton at home for homecoming in their final game of the season. Antioch, still undefeated for the season, has the opportunity to finish 9-0 for the regular season for the first time in the school's history with a victory.

Antioch's only score came in the second quarter when quarterback John Humphreys found his favorite target, Bryan Becker open in the endzone for a nine yard touchdown toss with 4:25 remaining. Humphreys' PAT kick was good and the 7-0 margin stood as the final score.

Warren had several opportunities to knot the score, its best coming in the final drive of the game when Antioch's defense showed the Sequoits deserved the victory. With Warren starting first and goal at the four yard line, Antioch's defense held. In fact they stopped Warren six times in succession from inside the seven yard line.

At the end, fourth and four, with Warren needing the touchdown to tie, the left side of the Antioch defense rose to the occasion. Ed Schwind, Andy Lehn and Frank Mahar stopped the original play by Warren quarterback Don Nelson. He then pitched to running back Dean Sjog who was hit by Dan Berkiel and John Geier causing a fumble which ended the drive. Antioch ran out the clock on the final play of the game.

"We just dug in and played with a lot of heart and courage," said Antioch Coach Steve Wapon in describing the strategy on that final drive. "I'm proud of the courage and the team defense that they played,"

he added.

Wapon credited the punting of Humphreys with keeping Warren in poor field position the entire first half. He punted six times in the game for a 36 yard average.

"With the terrible conditions it helps to keep good field conditions and the kicking game kept them from establishing that in the first half," said Wapon.

"The game was everything we expected. You expect the defense to dominate the big games and a 2½ hour driving rain adds to that. It was a matchup of two excellent defenses. It's easy to see why Warren has four shutouts. They're an excellent group of football players," said Wapon.

Another big factor in the win, and Antioch's undefeated season to date, said Wapon, "are two guys who have never seen one of our games—our scouts. Dan Mikal and Larry Kamin, our freshmen coaches who scout the other teams for us, have been a big factor by providing the type of information we need to prepare for a game."

Wapon also credited his coaching staff with helping prepare the Sequoits for one of their toughest seasons in history.

"We had to come back and top last year (final four in state). We had to play opponents at back to back homecomings (Lake Forest and Warren) and we had to play three games in eight days at one point," he added.

By a quirk of the schedule, Antioch will play its final regular season game this Saturday. The Sequoits are not scheduled to play the following weekend, but the Wednesday after that they will begin state playoff action.

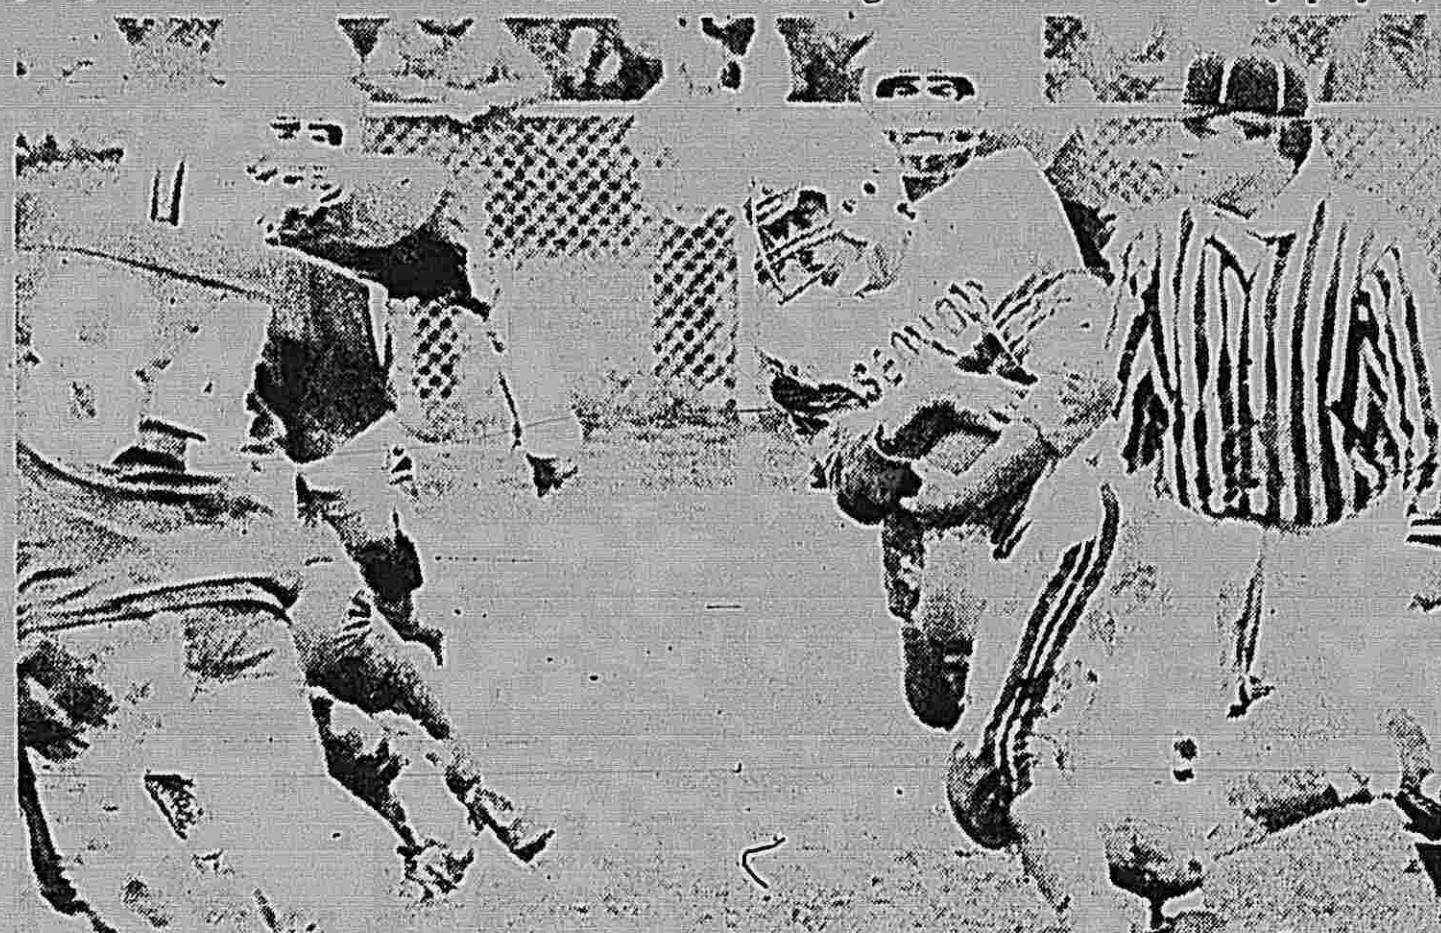

This weekend's game will be the team's first opportunity to run up a 9-0 record for the regular season. "It'll be a mark that can only be equalled, never bettered," said Wapon. A large crowd is expected for homecoming.

Wapon also credited Warren Coach Mike Kunkle and his coaching staff and program as being "classy," adding that despite the heat of contest and a frustrating day for Warren, Kunkle still sent congratulations and talked with Wapon after the game. "It shows that we have a healthy, although intense, rivalry," said Wapon, who added that the number of fans who sat through the game shows the support the two programs have.

Statistically, John Mahar led Antioch rushing with 15 carries 64 yards. Humphreys was five of 15 passing for 48 yards and one touchdown. Mahar had one reception for eight yards, Becker had two catches for 30 yards and one touchdown, Rod Steiskal had one catch for nine yards and Ed Silva had one for one yard.

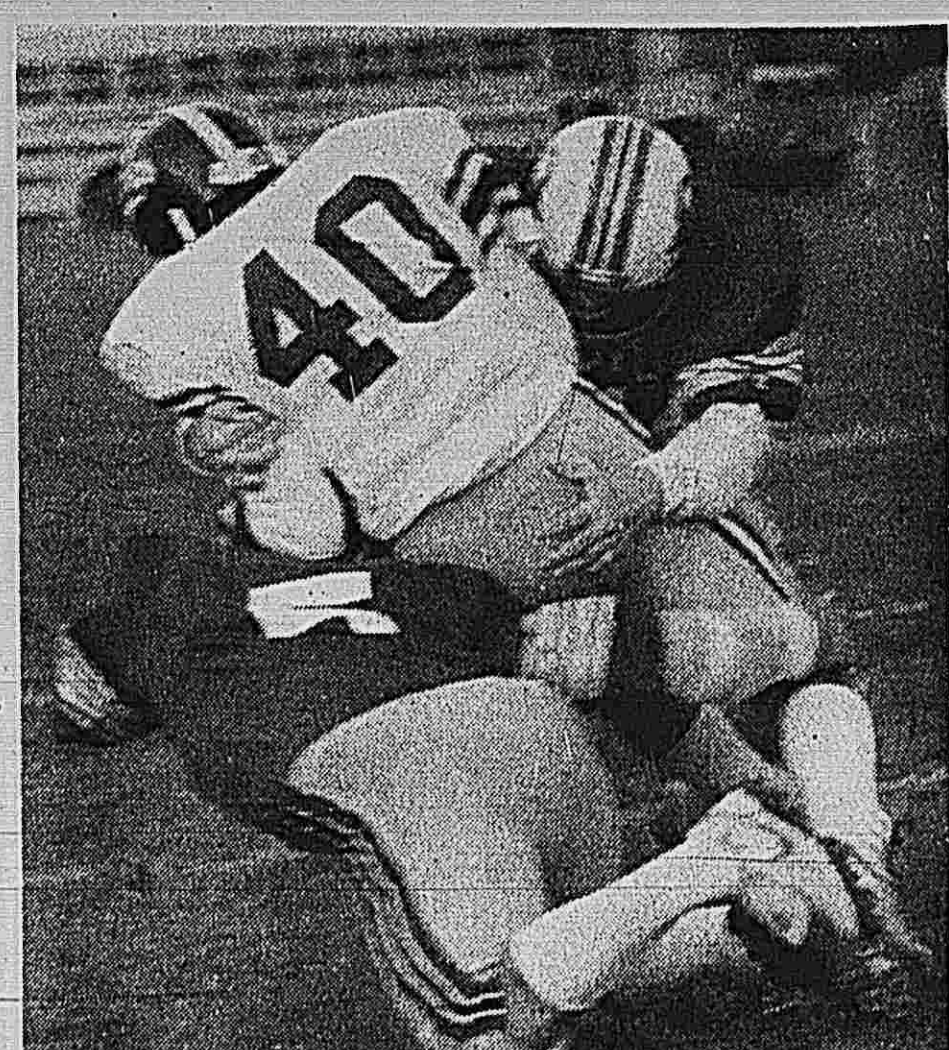

"It was another in a series of emotional games which we had a keen desire to win," Wapon added.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice of Proposed Changes in Schedule to Patrons of Commonwealth Edison Company

Commonwealth Edison Company hereby gives notice to the public that it has filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on October 7, 1983 proposed changes in its rates and charges for electric public utility service in all of the areas in which it provides retail service.

Such changes involve and would effect a general rate increase, providing for estimated increases in charges in 1984 for the following classes of customers: Residential - 10.3%; Residential Space Heating Customers - 10.3%; Residential Water Heating - 11.1%; Commercial, Industrial and Governmental - 10.9%; Governmental Pumping - 11.0%; Transit Services - 10.9%; Street and Area Lighting - 10.5%. Further increases of approximately equal magnitude were requested to become effective in 1985. The filing requests that some portion or all of the amounts requested for 1985 be applicable in 1984 in certain events.

The proposed charges would increase the bills of a residential customer using 300 kilowatt-hours in any month by $2.97 per month (10.2%) averaged over the year. If the customer used 600 kilowatt-hours a month, the corresponding increase would be $5.75 (10.3%) and if 1,000 kilowatt-hours, $9.46 (10.3%). The increases shown include estimated average 1984 revenue taxes and fuel adjustment charges which reflect the proposed revisions in Rider 20, but exclude charges for optional light bulb service. The proposed increases may, therefore, vary slightly from the above amounts depending on place of residence and whether the customer has chosen bulb service.

A copy of the proposed changes in schedule may be inspected by any interested party at any business office of this Company. All parties interested in this matter or who desire further information with respect to these changes may obtain information with respect thereto either directly from this Company or by addressing the Office of the Chief Clerk of the Illinois Commerce Commission, Springfield, Illinois 62706. Ask Dr Sven by Robert T. Sven B.S.D.D.S.

Question: Do we inherit our good or bad teeth?

Answer: We can inherit certain facial characteristics from our parents, including the size/shape of jawbone and teeth positioning, and the likelihood we'll have extra or too few teeth in our mouths. And malformed, imperfect teeth can be the result of heredity.

However, most people with normally-shaped teeth cannot blame their dental problems on their genes. In most instances, this is simply the excuse people give when they feel that the condition of their mouth or teeth is hopeless, and nothing can help it. This state of health came about from a variety of factors, generally the result of neglect, inadequate oral hygiene and improper diet.

Regular dental check-ups and a positive change in the care you give your mouth and teeth can help to turn the situation around. But only you can do it. Do not blame your family.

Although the tenants admit that he has visited them and told them they could do maintenance work for back rent and he will fix things up, they claim they have been lied to before and they don't know whether to believe him.

Erde added that another reason for the monthly rent was to cut the contact between the tenants and the manager "because they don't get along."

A disabled veteran's family claims that Erde has told them he doesn't want to evict them, although he did file court proceedings to do so. They said that they would like to find Section 8 housing instead.

Presently their monthly income is $330 and their rent has been hiked to $360.

There are also complaints of sporadic intestinal problems and staff infection because, "the property is contaminated," according to one tenant.

Erde scoffs at tenant claims that indigenous people are preferred because the property is a tax write-off.

"I'd love to have working people pay the rent," he said.

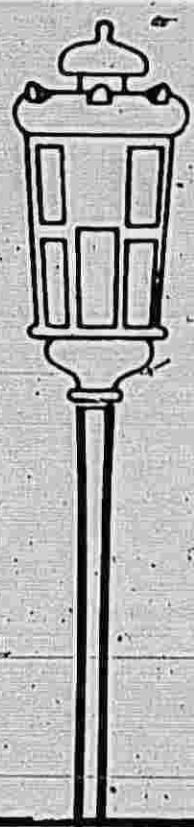

As it stands, Erde claims to be ignorant of the violations and is waiting to hear from the building and zoning department, although the tenants claim to have complained, not only in person to him, but many times to the manager.

When hunting wild game and fowl, medieval noblemen used trained falcons to fly after and overtake their prey.

Plan 'Toy Raiser' for Toys For Tots

Organizations interested in helping with this year's Toys For Tots drive for needy children can participate in many ways, according to organizers from the U.S. Marine Corps.

Organizations are encouraged to plan their own local toy drives. In the past, parties and dances have been held to aid the program, with admission being the donation of a toy.

U.S. Marines, who sponsor the annual program, are available to help dress up your fund raiser and put toys in containers at the door. It's a great way to get people into the Christmas spirit.

Once again this year,

Lakeland Newspapers is a co-sponsor of the event. Lakeland Newspapers offices in Grayslake, Wauconda, Antioch, Fox Lake and North Chicago will once again serve as drop-off stations for the Toys For Tots drive.

In addition, the newspaper group is encouraging advertisers to promote Toys for Tots and display the Toys For Tots logo in their holiday advertising.

National chairperson for Toys For Tots is actor William Shatner. Bob Byrne of Amco Tools and president of the North Chicago Chamber of Commerce is serving as honorary chairman for Lake and McHenry counties. John T. Case of WBBM radio is once again honorary chairman for the Chicagoland area.

Once again this year, Dominick's Finer Foods will serve as collection points for Toys For Tots, with 78 stores serving the Chicago area and another three expected to open before Christmas.

In addition, the U.S. Marines who are national sponsors of Toys For Tots, have announced that again this year Pepsi Cola General Bottlers in the Chicagoland area will provide pickup service for Toys For Tots from local Dominick's Food Stores.

Ceremonial kickoff of this year's Toys For Tots drive has been set for Thursday, Nov. 3, with barrels going out the week of Nov. 7-11.

This year's drive will continue through Dec. 16 at most locations, with pickups continuing until probably Dec. 19 or 20 at locations other than Dominick's, Winn noted.

Organizers stressed that the toy drive serves needy children of all ages.

"Sometimes people automatically think of children ages six to 10, so there is a need to fill in the gaps and provide toys for infants and toddlers and those ages 10 to 13," said Winn.

Location of drop-off locations will be made public soon, organizers said. Checks in support of Toys For Tots should be made out to Toys For Tots Inc.

Anyone seeking more information on the Toys For Tots program should call the Marine Reserve Center, Waukegan, at (312) 244-5517 or (312) 623-7447.
